Dear Mrs. Yates:

Received your letter to my mother, Marjory C. Schneider, and am taking the liberty of replying, as Mom is now 92 years young, is confined to a nursing home for "Senile Dementia" and other odds and ends having to do with her advanced years.

I went through my Dad's files, and have enclosed all that I could find which I felt might help you in your "quest". Dad was the one who did all the work on the genealogy, and this work came to an end shortly prior to his demise in 1975.

As you will notice, most of his research was concerning the branch of the Yates family who migrated first to Arkansas, and finally on to Texas. However, think at least a few of the enclosed might be of some help. Hope so.

Regards,

MF

I am trying to determine the name of your grandfather Yates - my great grandfather. Lennie McGinty of Ringold has given me a world of information as to my maternal grandfather and great grandfather and Bertie has given me the name of your Grandmother Yates - Sarah D. Ainsworth Yates. - my great grandmother, in a letter sometime ago - but the letter did not give the name of Sarah's husband.

The 1860 census of Marie Saline Township, Ashley County, Arkansas where the family seems to have lived after moving northward from Mississippi lists a Thomas D. Yates as "head of family" - it also lists Sarah, Jefferson, "I. N.", whom we take to be Isaac Newton, your father and my grandfather, a girl with just the initials "F E" whom we take to be Francis Elizabeth, born in Hinds County, Miss. in 1851 and Mary C., born in Arkansas in 1859.

It is interesting that when the Yates family moved from Mississippi to Arkansas, the McGinty family moved westward from Georgia - both families settled in Marie Saline Township of Ashley county. A township is a six mile square chunk of land - thus the Yates and the McGinty families were rather close neighbors, for the day - "I N" - Isaac Newton was listed as 14 years of age in 1860 and Ann Elizabeth, his future wife was listed as 12. Both ages check quite closely with the other records we have. Your Father and Ann Elizabeth McGinty thus "grew up" together - and married in Ashley County in 1866. We know of four children - Euna, William Joseph, Nila, my mother and Isaiah born June 30, 1883 here in San Antonio and renamed August when he was adopted by the Seay family. There are very slight indications that there were two more children, but so far we've

THE YATES LINE.

Present documentation of the Yates line begins with the 1850 census of Covich County, Mississippi, which list the following:

Thomas D. Yates, age 46, farmer	born in North Carolina
Sarah D. Yates, Age 30	born in Mississippi
John J. Yates, Age 10	born in Mississippi
Thomas J. Yates, age 7	born in Mississippi
Isaac N. Yates, age 4	born in Mississippi
Joseph M. Yates, age 2	born in Mississippi

Later census listing the Yates family would indicate that in 1850, Thomas D. Yates was actually 53 years of age, and Sarah D. Yates was actually 27 years of age. One member of the Yates family states that Sarah D. Yates was a niece of Jefferson Davis, president of the Southern confederacy and that Sarah D. Yates full name at the time of the census was Sarah D. Ainsworth Yates. It has been reported that Sarah D. Yates was first married to a man named Ainsworth she is known in one branch of the Yates family as Sarah D. Ainsworth Yates. Supporting data for these various claims has not as yet been developed.

Thomas D. Yates, Sarah Yates and the children of the couple are again recorded in the 1860 census of Marie Saline Township in Ashley County, Arkansas. The eldest son, John, born in Mississippi is not listed in that census; he would have been 20 years of age and most likely was off on his own. In the 1860 Ashley County Census, one Francis Elizabeth, born in Hinds County after the taking of the 1850 census (she was known in the family as "Fanny" and a Mary C. Yates, born in Arkansas are listed; the name of Joseph M. Yates is incorrectly listed as James M. Yates. Mary C. was known in the family as Molly; there is some question as to whether her initial was "B" or "C"

Another daughter, Sarah Josephine was born in 1863; some time later Thomas D. Yates died. His widow later married an Enoch T. Fitts. They are listed in the 1870 census of Union Parish, Louisiana, along Francis, then age 17, Mary B., then aged 15 and Sarah J. then age 7, the last child born to Thomas D. Yates and Sarah D. Yates. The name of Sarah's husband is misspelled in the census as Fitz - but the presence of Sarah's children by her earlier marriage attest that the name should be spelled Fitts, as it is in the 1880 census of Union parish. In that census, Sarah J. (Josephine) is listed as a step daughter of Enoch T. Fitts. The 1880 census is the first census wherein the names of the father and mother of the family head and his wife are given.

No further information is available as to Enoch T. Fitts. Sarah D. Fitts (Sarah D. Ainsworth Fitts, according to the elders of the Yates family, died in 1900 - place not yet known, but thought to be Sibley, Webster Parish, Louisiana.

According to The Yates Family Record, Isaac Newton Yates migrated to Marie Saline Parish from Covich County Georgia sometime - currently believed to have been about 1859 - before the 1860 census - he was listed as 14 years of age, which fitted the age given in the Covich County census of 1850. The Yates family had come from Marion, Georgia on Schneider what appear to be the pages from the Yates Family Bible the birth dates and the marriage certificate of Isaac Newton Yates and Ann Elizabeth McInty, whose family migrated from Georgia to Marie Saline Township, Ashley County Georgia in the late 1850s - the same township to which the Yates family had migrated, and thus approximately the same time - the late 1850. Thus, Isaac Newton Yates and Ann Elizabeth McGinty grew to adulthood as neighbors. They were married in Ashley County, Arkansas in 1866. Their marriage resulted in the melding of the Yates and McGinty lines. It has not been possible to trace the couple's movement for the next sixteen years - until their arrival in San Antonio, probably in the second half of 1882 or the first half of 1883.

Isaac Newton Yates is listed in the 1883-1884 issue of the San Antonio City Directory, with a Robert Yates, reported as living with him. Robert Yates has not been identified.

Isaac Newton Yates and his wife, Ann Elizabeth McGinty are known to have had four children - probably an early teen-age daughter, named Emma, who is listed in the 1885 and 1886 and the 1887-88 San Antonio City Directories. She returned to Louisiana to live with her father sometime in 1886-87 and died there. The date and place of birth are not known. William Joseph Yates, said to have been born in Farmerville, Union Parish in 1873.

Dear Aunt Arie:

As I wrote I would in early May, I queried the Arkansas Historical Commission for any additional information the Commission may have had with reference to your father. The Commission replied that it had no record of Isaac Newton Yates.

My paternal grandmother, Sarah Chappel Cameron had a younger brother, Coleman Chappel, who had been in the Confederate Army and was killed in combat - one of those fights that took place here, there or other places after the Surrender in Virginia. I wrote the National Archives and Records Service in Washington, requesting any information the Service had with reference to Coleman Chappel.

In two or three weeks I received some 30 copies of various documents, muster rolls, etc. pertaining to him. He had enlisted in the 3rd Arkansas Infantry in June of 1861. Apparently his regiment was moved to Virginia rather shortly and eventually became part of General Lee's Army of Northern Virginia. In the early June, 1864 battle of Cold Harbor, Virginia, where General Lee's forces whipped General Grant's forces, Coleman Chappel received a serious neck wound and died a day or so later in a Confederate hospital in Richmond, Virginia.

Years ago, Max was a student at both the Army and the Navy War Colleges - he became interested in the War Between the States and bought a set of Douglass Freeman's authoritative works on that War. Freeman makes the statement that at the time of the surrender, many of the Confederate units and headquarters burned their records to keep them from falling into the hands of General Grant. That may be the reason we have only the one Muster Roll of Isaac Newton Yates - and none beyond June of 1864 on Coleman Chappel.

Two brothers of Ann Elizabeth McGinty Yates - Thomas J. and James McGinty are recorded in McGinty Family history as having died in the War. I have not as yet checked them out with the Archives and Records Service, but intend to do so.

Since my last letter, I have "rejoined the human race" - the Doctors have finally cleared up my ears. If I may revert to slang - I was just about to go nuts because they hurt so badly for so long a time. To add to my troubles, my long time friend and hairdresser "passed" - so it was up to me to find another one who could and would do "long" hair. So many of the shops will not do "long" hair! I was finally successful - found one in the small shopping center in our neighborhood.

Max and I are both so terribly sorry about your son's accident and the serious injury he sustained. When one so near and dear is stricken that way there is always the feeling "Why did it have to happen to him". The ways of the Lord are mysterious and sometimes bitter in their effects. The ancient Egyptians three thousand years ago tried to find the answer to suffering. The best they could come up with was the one it is so hard to take: "It was God's will" They too asked "Why" as we do today. We sincerely hope that he is showing definite improvement and that the grief of you and your husband has been somewhat assuaged by your religious faith. Max and I have both found the following little prayer of great helpfulness.

God grant me the serenity to accept the things
I cannot change
The courage to change the things I can,
And the wisdom to know the difference.

We do not know the author of the prayer; it was published in a forgotten magazine some years ago. We think it is wonderful.

In attempting to trace the origins of Thomas D. Yates, we noticed that in North Carolina, where he was born, there is a county named "Bertie". We could not help but wonder if, in some way, your name perpetuated the memory of the county of his birth on the part of your father. It is an interesting thought.

As I think I wrote you before, we will always be deeply grateful to you because in your first letter you gave us the information on which all of our Yates Family history study has been based. William Joseph was but about nine years old when his mother died - he had but little information about the family to pass on. Both Euna and Robert left San Antonio around 1887. My mother, (Elizabeth) Nila was only about 8 years old when the family "broke up". So you see we had nothing to build on until you wrote.

We are also most grateful for the picture of your father you sent us. We have a picture of Euna Arie sent us and of William Jones McGinty, my maternal great grandfather. I have pictures of my parents and my brothers, of course, but the three I mention are the only pictures I have of the earlier generations.

Love

PS. I worded part of the paragraph as to your name rather poorly - I meant to say "if your name perpetuated the county of birth of Thomas D. Yates, Isaac Newton's father and was given to you by your father for that purpose." In trying to think and write at the same time I sometimes get my words mixed up.

Max has a genealogical friend here who has from time passed on to us Yates information he receives from a genealogical friend in Houston. That friend has not been too reliable in the past, although some of the information she provided checked out ok. The other day he sent us a "data" sheet on Thomas Yates, whom we think may have been your brother. If he was, I have, of course, certain of the information not shown on the data sheet - date and place of birth and death, parentage.

If you would fill in any of the other information not shown on the data sheet (inclosed) I would greatly appreciate it. Sherry Gritzbaugh, who provided the basic information Mr. Whitman incorporated in the Data Sheet seems to have a direct interest in the Yates Family. I do not know Sherry Gritzbaugh; neither do I have her address. I am under the impression she lives in Houston. I intend to ask Mr. Whitman if Sherry has any information on Grandpa-Great Grandpa Thomas D. Yates. Because of the indicated age differential (1860 Ashley County Ark. census listing) there is a possibility that Sarah D. Ainsworth was Thomas D. Yates's second wife - according to the 1860 Ashley County, Arkansas, Thomas was some twenty five years older than Sarah.

John Yates wrote that he understood that Thomas D. was in the United States Army at the time he married Sarah D. Ainsworth. The National Archives and Records Service in Washington has custody of the old Army records. I queried them in the matter. They replied the Service could find no record of Thomas D. Yates in the Army in the mid 1800s. Since the 1850 Copiah County census listed a 10 year old son (John) we assumed that the marriage took place about 1839. I mentioned this in my letter of 1 April, I believe - but at that time had not - oh, oh - I've gotten myself mixed up! My 1 April letter was to Bertie - who never writes!

I really wrote you on 4 May that I would write the Arkansas Historical Commission to see if they had any information on Isaac Newton Yates, "Father - Grandfather". The Commission replied it had no information. I wonder if the 12th Arkansas Cavalry joined the 3rd Arkansas Infantry in General Lee's Army of Northern Virginia!

Aunt Arie - this letter is getting quite long. So I better "chop it off", wish you the Lord's Blessing and thank you for the chance to know you - even if only by letter. You are sweet and Max and I both love you greatly. We celebrated our 48th wedding anniversary on 10 June - and Max's 76th birthday the following day. We are so grateful we have been permitted to be with each other through the years.

Love

September 10, 1972.

Dear Aunt Arrie:

We have certainly distinguished ourselves the past several months as "poor correspondants". Other than to say that we have been pursuing our genealogy efforts - mostly with regard to Max's family and my father's family - we have no valid excuse.

A cousin of Max's (named Marjorie) some years back had discovered a book published in 1877 giving a genealogical history of Max's grandmother's New England factory - but couldn't remember just where she saw it - she is a born New Yorker, and has lived there all her life. She has been quite interested in genealogy; her father, who died in his late 80's was the last person who actually had known Max's mother. His mother, as well as his grandmother and Max's mother were all born in New York City. We finally located the book, in the New York Library, had the pertinent pages copied and now have a history of the family back to London in 1640. We also secured a copy of the 1880 New York City census page on which the Cassidy family was listed - it busted open - wide open - a long time Cassidy Family tradition.

We now have notes from the 1850 and 1860 Copiah County Mississippi and Ashley County census showing Isaac Newton Yates as a child of four and fourteen - and Ann Elizabeth McGinty as a child of 12 - of the 1880 census of Columbia County, Arkansas (Magnolia Township) listing Papa-grandpapa Isaac Newton Yates and his "first family", and the 1880 census (1860 and 1870 censuses also) of Hoboken, New Jersey listing Max's paternal grandparents, his father and his various aunts and uncles. It is amazing how much information can be dug up, here there and the other place - but it sure takes time and a lot of letter writing. The censuses are micro-filmed by county - sometimes two or three counties on one microfilm roll. If the roll is "full" it takes about three hours to "read" it on a special machine.

Had a sweet letter from Lennie last month. In her last previous letter she had written she might have to have surgery, but now she hopes to be able to avoid it. While she said in her letter that she was feeling pretty good now (she underscored the word "now"). But sort of reading "between the lines", I rather guess she is not doing as well as she could wish. Nila Hargett, daughter of William Joseph Yates, is doing a lot better, she says - although I've not seen her lately. It turned out that she had a broken hip joint that was bothering her terribly - but the surgery seemed to have straightened out that trouble. She had to use a "walker" for a while - one of those four legged metallic gadgets used in place of crutches sometimes.

Max and I have been doing reasonably well and keeping quite busy. The summer has been hot - but off and on we've had enough rain to keep things pretty green. The Arizona Ash trees we planted in our back yard some fifteen years ago got so dense they had to be severely trimmed back last week - so they look sort of naked now. It was necessary to trim them severely because the leaf-growth had gotten so heavy some of the bigger branches were breaking in high winds and heavy rains. After one heavy rain, we discovered one limb was resting on the power line lead to the house. (when I make a typing mistake I "paint" over it instead of trying to erase the error; it is quicker and doesn't look quite as bad as an erasure).

Pascagoula Public Library
Genealogy & Local History Dept.
Yates Family

We have had a "lead" - as yet unverified - that my father's father - Isaac Cameron, said to have been born in Philadelphia - was also in the Confederate Army - The National Archives and Records Service in Washington furnished me copies of some Confederate records, relating to a man of the same initials and name same last name, but so far we've not been able to definitely identify him as my Grandpa Cameron. The man whose record we were furnished sure had hard luck. The first regiment in which he enlisted in Arkansas got captured, lock, stock and barrel when the "Yanks" captured Ft. Donelson on the Mississippi River; however, the Yanks traded him off for one of their men the Confederates held, so he came out ok. He went back home and enlisted in another Confederate outfit and got captured again - this time they sent him to a prisoner of war camp near Chicago and then "paroled" him and gave him back to the Confederates in Virginia. The difference between "exchanging" for another man and a parole is considerable, as I recall. If a man was exchanged he could join-up again if he wanted to. If he was "paroled" he could not do that - and, if after being paroled he was again captured, the going got tough and he might well be shot! We have nothing to prove just what this Cameron man did after he was paroled.

Thank you so much for filling in that data sheet on Tomie. Once in a while I see the man who made it up on the basis of the information a genealogist in Houston gave him. He and the Houston person try to trace family group migrations - the movements of groups of families. Mr. Whitman, the local genealogist, and Max got acquainted through a telephone call, during which Max told him of our interest in the Yates family history. Ever since then he forwards us any "Yates" data he obtains. Like doctors, genealogists seem to specialize. Some are "Researchers", hunting bits of information to put together the story of a family or a group of families. Others are merely "compilers" - putting together the information others have gathered by their research. Mr. Whitman does some research and some compiling - his Houston compatriot seems to simply "compile"

As is evident, I'm not a "hot shot" typist!! But as I wrote one time, my typing is easier to read - errors and all - than my hand writing!. Honey, I'm going to have to close. My Church Women's group is having a luncheon at the church today - it is time for me to "get going". Take care of yourself and be happy.

Love - always.

Dearest - Marjory -

I will try and answer your dear sweet letter, I enjoyed so very much. its always so good to hear from you two,

And I thank you for etc records, or piece of information. About "Papa," or any of our people. they are appreciated more than words can ever express.

And I doubt doubt in the least that perhaps "Papa," with other burned, or destroyed than Army records. Bless the Boys hearts, I know they must have suffered lots in those days.

Thomas Yates, my Great-Grandfather, could have been married twice, but I hardly believe "Papa," father had. I believe my Mother would have said something about it, if he had.

Yes, the data you sent was about our baby brother ^{Tomie} you may have all his birth and etc, I don't know "Virginia," or "Alma's" births I never did know any of Virginia's people - but after she and Tomie separated she married a man named Jack Frost, and he got killed in the six fields and she married Pat Benson - but I had not know either one of them. and they do have two adopted children

Any of the younger children married. I do not know when Tom Jr. was born, but Bill is correct. I very seldom hear from them - but I love them. Both, ^{Bill & Mary} finished College after her second child was born. but I don't imagine, Tom Jr. lives too far from you.

I am really glad your ears have cleared up. I have always been subject to ear ache. Now, I have a swollen face - & tooth, that my bridge fits too. has been working me. I am so afraid I may have to have it extracted, it has been filled, but it has been so long. And a small piece has broken out,

Oh! I wish I had of know you had an anniversary the 10th of June. I was married 58 yrs the 29th of June - but I have been alone 21 years - Bertie was married 54 years the 22nd so we were all three "June Brides."

Sorry to hear about your friend, passing away. I know you miss her. My granddaughter - hat lives close, keeps my hair rolled. etc week - but I have to go to Minden for a permanent. I always go to one of my sons. And they take me - a named nurse room (where we was were now. She is either at Belle, or Margaret's her daughter. She has a bad heart, and not able to do very much. Bertie was telling me that "his" is the call her - wasn't doing to good. I generally get a birthday ^{card} from "her," but never this time. I am 75 years old.

July 6th. And I am so thankful, that my Lord, has been so good to me - and gives me the strength, to keep up my little house work - she says has been painting some for me - which was begging to be needed:

I have a friend, that is 3 years my senior and we were real close for years - still ~~are~~ - she is in a nursing home now in Minden. But what I am trying to get at.
I didn't know until about a month ago that her husband was kin to the Mc Intyre, - but she couldn't seem to tell me to much. I aim to go see her again as soon as I can and see "who, she knows - & saw - her niece at Prayer Meeting last night. And she seem to think, this friend is losing her memory fast - she doesn't have any children, her husband has been dead about 17 years. - but she is a dedicated Christian, and raised several orphans. I am sure she was a wonderful person too, on, many, I, all don't realize what it means to me - to know you - "As you ^{said} it is only, three letters

And I always look forward to hearing from you.

I too, thank God that you and Max has had all these wonderful years together.
And I hope you have many many more happy ones together,

I am sorry I couldn't fill this letter for you - but I do not know. Sus or Tom's wifes birth Tom's wife is named Madell.
I didn't know either ones maiden names - I guess you think I am really foreign to my people; but that's just the way it is - mostly neglect.

I am "hushing" this letter, up - I know you are tired, reading it.
So you keep sweet, and God Bless you both always.

Love you

Aunt Ann

My dear Ma -
July 13 - 72 -

Dearest - Marjory -

I will try and answer your dear sweet letter. I enjoyed so very much. its always so good to hear from you two.

And I thank you for etc records, or piece of information. about "Papa" or any of our people. they are appreciated more than words can ever express.

And I dont doubt in the least that perhaps "Papa" with other burned, or destroyed than Army records. Bless the boys hearts, I know they must have suffered lots in those days.

Thomas Yates, my Great Grand father, could have been married twice, but I hardly believe "Papa" father had. I believe my Mother would have said something about it, if he had.

Yes, the data you sent was about my baby brother ^{Tomie} you may have all his birth and etc, I dont know, "Virginias" or "Admies" births I never did know any of Virginias people - but after she and Tomie seperated she married a man named Jack Frost. and he got killed in the oil fields and she married Pat Benson - but I did not know either one of them. and they do have two adopted children

Dear Mrs. Schneider:

I will try to answer your letter regarding information on the Yates clan.

But I'm afraid I can't add to much to what you already have.

all I have is legend, no records at all. Your Bartie Jane was wrong in telling you our Grandmother was a niece of Jefferson Davis. She was supposed to have been a first cousin. Her name was Sarah Davis Cinsworth.

You mentioned that your husband would be about my age. But not. He is almost the exact age of my Brother Charlie Ross Yates, who was born June 1, 1896.

The following is a list of our births.

Arrie Yates born July 6, 1894
Charlie Ross Yates born June 1, 1896
Bertie Jane Yates born Apr. 15, 1900
(one) John H. Yates born Dec. 8, 1901
(Thomas R Yates) born Feb. 5 1904
(died Nov 1906)

I'm trying to trace the movements of my father since he married in 1866. I may and that he moved to Farmersville Union Trust Co. at the time his mother did.

My father served in the Confederate forces during Civil War. He was in Mississippi
Cavalry unit. Until the surrender.

As to the parentage of Thomas H. Yates, may be available from the U.S. States records dept. As he was in the U.S. Army or Cavalry when he married our Grand mother. That was before the South succeded from

If there are any more questions I can answer please let me know, and it was nice to hear from you, and would appreciate hearing from you anytime you feel like writing.

Sorry I could not furnish you much information.

Dear Bertie:

I don't mean to become a correspondence "pest" - and hope that you will not resent my queries as to the Yates Family. Because of the information I've gotten so far, I've become intensely interested in the family history, and with my husband, have done some researching.

As I think I explained, our Public Library has an arrangement whereby one can rent for a most moderate ~~account~~ a microfilm of most any census of most any county in the U. S. Some of the old census are not available - having been destroyed by fires, floods and the like. In some cases, the pages are damaged to the extent they are not legible - hence the microfilm is not legible. But by and large, they are quite useable. On learning that your father and Ann Elizabeth had been married in Ashley County of Arkansas, we "rented" the 1860 and 1870 census microfilms. They recorded the Thomas D. - Sarah Yates Family, as I wrote you a few days ago. The 1860 census did not record John Yates nor Josephine Yates, nor Joe Yates; it did, however, record a James M. age 12. It showed that Thos. D. Yates was born in North Carolina, and that Thomas J. (16), I. N. (14), James M. and "F.E." (10) were born in Mississippi, while Mary C., aged 1 year was born in Arkansas.

Because Isaac N., our "progenitor" was ~~born~~ being born in Covington County, Mississippi and our Library had on hand of microfilm of the 1850 Covington County census, we ran that through the viewing machine - - no Thos. D.-Sarah family listed! However, there were several listings, that to say the least, were intriguing! It has never been unusual for an older widower to marry a much younger woman; our 82 year former Mayor did just that recently! My next door neighbor "is raising a second family", just as Isaac Newton Yates did. And the father of my "best Gal friend" did so many, many years ago. The age of Thos. D. Yates suggests that he had "two families" also.

The 1850 Covington census lists a William B. Yates, age 30, with a wife and five children. In 1850, Thomas D. Yates would have been 53 - - Old enough to have been the father of William. Then in that same county and census, there is listed a Samuel Yates, and wife (both aged 36) with nine children, including a girl named Elizabeth (11) and a boy named Thomas D. (10). If Sarah Ainsworth's husband, Thomas D. sired, ~~sired~~ Samuel, he was in his late teens when he did so - again, not an unusual occurrence.

A third family group entry was quite provocative of thought. Family 101, living in House 107 listed Frederick Smith, 27, born in England; his wife, Mahala Smith, 25, born in Mississippi, George W. Smith, age 2, born in Mississippi AND Elizabeth Yates, 78 born in North Carolina plus Jacob Yates, 22 and Jeffer Yates, 10 - both born in Mississippi. At 78 in 1850, she would have been 25 in 1797 - the year Thomas D. was born - old enough to have been his mother. An interesting possibility!

Pascagoula Public Library
Genealogy & Local History Dept.
Yates Family

Also listed in the Covington County 1850 census, as a separate householder, "all by her little old lonesome" was Farmelia Yates, age 16 - yes, 16! She is listed as the 147th house, visited by the census taker - and the 147th "family".

At this moment, without ~~anything~~ more to go on, the chances of tracing the Yates back to North Carolina are a bit more than slim. It may be that the Mississippi Gal down at the genealogical section of the Main Library - Mrs. Robertson - can give us a hand. She says that at one time she was related to too many people in Mississippi when one of his rather numerous daughters asked why they - the family - was moving to Texas, he is said to have told her "So you girls can get married, without having to marry a cousin". I don't know what her maiden name was - never thought to ask her.

Again, please Bertie - if you have any additional information on the family, please share it with me! I certainly would be grateful. And, again, please excuse both my use of the typewriter as well as the quality of the typing!

Affectionately

The Yates Family Bible records that Isaac Newton Yates the third son of Sarah D. Ainsworth Yates (b. October 8, 1821; d. September 8, 1900) was born in Covington County Mississippi, November 28, 1845. He died in Sibley, Webster County (Parish) Louisiana 21 March, 1906.

Isaac Newton Yates married Ann Elizabeth McGinty in Ashley County, Arkansas February 15, 1866.

Ann Elizabeth McGinty was born in Muscogee County, Georgia February 2, 1848, the daughter of William Jones McGinty and Martha Davidson McGinty; granddaughter of Thomas McGinty and Sarah Castleberry McGinty. In the late 1850's, the William Jones McGinty family migrated from Georgia to northwest Louisiana, just south of the Arkansas border; the widowed Thomas crossed into Arkansas and died there.

The Isaac Newton Yates family came to San Antonio, Texas in 1882 or early 1883; a son was born to Ann Elizabeth in June of 1883. She died in San Antonio in January 1884. The widowed Isaac Newton subsequently returned to Louisiana and remarried.

Mrs. J. F. Collingsworth, the writer of the attached letter is a daughter of Isaac Newton Yates by his second wife. We are indebted to her for furnishing the Family Bible data on which this memorandum is based.

Exact data as to the number of children of the first marriage of Isaac Newton to Ann Elizabeth is not presently available - four are definitely known: Euna, William Joseph and Nila, born prior to the family's migration to San Antonio and Isaiah, born in San Antonio. There is a family tradition of a teen age son that seems highly plausible in view of the date of marriage and the birthdate of William Joseph - 1873. However, the "tradition" has not as yet been firmly verified.

THE ISAAC FRANCIS CAMERON FAMILY.

According to family tradition, Isaac Francis Cameron was born in Philadelphia, the son of a marine shipping family. The family intended to send him to England to complete his education; to avoid this family action, he "ran away" from home and never returned. The date of his birth and of his death are unknown. Cameron family tradition has it that he became a harness maker sometime prior to the War between the States and that sometime during that war he accompanied the Confederate forces.

Sometime after 1850, Issac Francis Cameron married Sarah Chappel of Hickman County, Tennessee. She is listed in the 1850 census as born in Georgia in 1822, the daughter of Ansel and Dorcas Chappel. They were born in North Carolina - Ansel in 1787 and Dorcas in 1794. Apparently, they continued to live in North Carolina until 1817; their first child, Alley (?) was born there. Sometime prior to 1822 Ansel and Dorcas migrated to Georgia, where Sarah was born. Apparently, their stay in Georgia was of short duration, for their next child, Mary was born in Tennessee in 1825.

Ansel Chapel is first listed in Hickman County, Tennessee, in the 1830 census of that county. Note: Until the 1850 census, the census listing gave only the name of the "head of family" - the other members were simply listed by age groups, male and female. Sarah is probably included in the 2 females of the age group of five years, under ten years of age.

The 1830 Hickman County census also lists a Richard Chappel, with 1 male 20-30 and 1 female 20-30 - the normal way of listing a young, childless couple in that census.

The 1820 census of Hickman County, Tennessee does not list any Chappel families. Apparently Ansel and Dorcas migrated from Georgia to Tennessee between 1822 and 1825 and remained there the rest of their lives. The 1840 census of Hickman County would indicate they had a total of 8 children.

Children of Isaac Francis - Sarah Chappel Cameron:

Antoine Haywood Cameron b. Tulip ~~Ark~~ Dallas Co., Ark 1855; d. San Antonio, Texas 1937. Buried Mission Burial Park.

Permelia Ann Cameron m James Ledbetter; b. 1857 Ark. d. 1933, San Antonio Tex. Buried Mission Burial Park.

Isabell Cameron. b. 1857. (?) ~~No further data available.~~
m. Felix Bryant. No further data available.

Lists

The 1891 San Antonio City Directory ~~names~~ Sarah Chappel, Cameron and her son Antoine Haywood Cameron for the first time in the 1891 (one year) issue. Sarah Cameron is listed as operating a harness making shop, with son Antoine as foreman. However, the death certificates for Sarah, Antoine and Permelia Ann, on file with the San Antonio Metropolitan Health District indicate an arrival in San Antonio some years earlier (1887/88)

Pascagoula Public Library
Genealogy & Local History Dept.
Yates Family

In the ~~1903~~ 1903 and the 1905-06 issues of the City Directory, Antoine H. Cameron is listed as "carriage trimmer, harness, second hand vehicles, cold tire setter"; again Sarah's residence is listed, but not her connection with the business. However, such connection must have continued; ^{NOT} it was not the custom of the Directory Publishers of the day ^{to} list women not earning a salary or otherwise involved in business. Thus, Antoine Hayward Cameron's wife was not listed, although she had a husband and a family of four children (Ralph, Robert, Clarence Wade, (known as Wade) and Mariory) before 1906.

The 1907 issue of the City directory lists Antoine H. Cameron as "hermess" and, parenthetically notes that he is married by the notation "Mrs. N." In some listings the name, rather than the initial of the wife is shown - (Myrtle, Mary, Catherine, Ora, Myrtle, Rachal) ~~is shown~~ - this appears to be the first issue in which the names of wives ~~are listed~~. were given

Sarah Chappel Cameron died in San Antonio, Texas in 1908.

In retrospect, it is obvious that Sarah Chappel Cameron was a most extraordinary woman. She was born in Georgia in 1822 - her death certificate agrees with the 1850 Hickman County census in both items - state of birth and date of birth. She came to San Antonio with her son (and probably her oldest daughter) and in 1891 established a harness ~~making~~^{repairing} business - she was then 69 years old. Her son, Antoine continued the business for a number of years; then was injured in a fall and for several years engaged in other endeavors. He eventually established the Cameron Auto Top Company, in connection with his two sons, Robert Gerald and Clarence Wade - and is so listed in the 1910-1920 San Antonio City Directory. The 1921-22 City Directory shows that one son, Clarence Wade had become manager of the Cameron Auto Top Company, 447 Main Ave and the other son, Robert Gerald had established the Cameron Manufacturing Company, wholesale auto tops and seat covers at the same address. The Cameron Manufacturing Company, operating in 1971, is obviously an outgrowth of the business established by Sarah Cameron in San Antonio in 1891 as S. Cameron, harness manufacturer! Today, the Cameron Manufacturing Company is operated by Sarah's grandson and two great grandsons, Robert, Jr. and Ledov!

On 17 November, 1891, Antoine Haywood Cameron, son of Sarah Chappel Cameron and Isaac Francis Cameron married Nila Yates Crawford of San Antonio, the daughter of Isaac Newton Yates and Ann Elizabeth McGinty Yates, who had been adopted in May, 1884 by the Oscar Crawford family of San Antonio, following the death of her mother in San Antonio, Texas 30 January 1884. This marriage resulted in the melding of the Cameron-Chappel lines with the Yates-McGinty line.

1880 CENSUS EXTRACT

MAGNOLIA TOWNSHIP -COLUMBIA COUNTY, ARKANSAS

YATES, I. N.	34	CARPENTER.	BORN: MISSISSIPPI
YATES, ANN E.	32	wife	BORN: GEORGIA
YATES, ROBT. T.	11	At School	BORN: LOUISIANA
YATES, EUNA (DAU)	8	At School	BORN: ARKANSAS
YATES, WILLIAM J.	7	At home	BORN: LOUISIANA
YATES, ELY N. (DAU)	4	At home	BORN: LOUISIANA.

NOTE: The Robt. T. Yates listed in this 1880 census is considered to be the Robert Yates listed in the 1883-84 biennial edition of the San Antonio City Directory as making his home with Isaac N. Yates. It is thought that he dropped his first name 'Robert' inasmuch as he did not use it in signing several legal documents in 1887.

NOTE: The name 'Ely' given for the 4 year old daughter is thought to be a scribal misspelling of the diminutive 'Eliza' for the name Elizabeth, and that the name of the daughter was actually Elizabeth Nila Yates and should have been so recorded. Her mother's maiden name was 'Ann Elizabeth McGinty'; it is known that her husband habitually called her "Eliza". From the time she was eight years old, until she died in 1919, the daughter was known by her middle name, 'Nila'.

General Comment: Despite the variations in the stated age, it is obvious that the Sarah D., the Sarah without initial, the Sarah L. and the Sarah D. of the 1880 Union Parish census are one and the same person; likewise, it is obvious that the father of her children was Thomas D. Yates, who apparently died between the time of the 1860 census and that of the 1870 census. During this period, Sarah D. Yates married E. T. Fitts

John G. Yates, Age 10, listed in the 1850 census of Copiah County, is not listed in any of the succeeding census; by the time of the 1860 Census of Marie Saline Township, Ashley County, Arkansas, he would have been twenty years of age - and probably off on his own. His age would indicate that Thomas D. Yates and Sarah D. Yates were married in 1840/41. The birth of the third son, Isaac N. in 1845/46 in Covington County, Mississippi and the listing of a Thomas D. Yates in the 1840 census of that county may indicate that Thomas D. and Sarah D. Yates resided in Covington County for some years.

The "F.E." Yates, listed in the 1860 Ashley County census is the Francis Yates, aged 17 listed in the 1870 census of Union Parish; non-census information is that Francis Elizabeth Yates was born in Hinds County, Mississippi in 1851. The Joseph M. Yates, age 2, listed in the 1850 census of Copiah County is considered to be the James M. Yates of the 1860 census of Ashley County. (Note: there is great similarity in the abbreviations for "Joseph" and "James" - "Jos" and "Jes". The ages given in the two census - 2 and 12 - tally.

The 1860 Census of Ashley County, Arkansas lists "Mary C. Yates, age 1 year, born in Arkansas"; the 1870 census of Union Parish, La. lists a "Mary B. Yates, age 15, born in Arkansas. Despite the obvious four year differential in the 1870 Union Parish census, it is considered that the listings record the same person.

The Josephine Yates, age 17 listed in the 1880 census of Union Parish, as a step-daughter in the household of of Enoch and Sarah Fitts is considered to be the Sarah J. Yates, age 7 listed in the 1870 census living in the household of Enoch and Sarah I. Fitz, along with her older sisters, Francis Elizabeth Yates and Mary B. Yates.

OUR GRANDPARENTS -- WILLIAM BASIL (W. B.) AND VICTORIA ANN YATES

William Basil (W. B.) Yates (Jr.) was born August 25, 1850, to William Basil (Sr.) and Martha (Patsy) Bullock Yates.

Victoria Ann Yates was born February 10, 1847 to Samuel and Rebecca Polk Yates.

Both came from large families -- 17 or 18 children. Both families lived in what was then known as the Watts Beat in the southern part of Covington County. The relation of the two families is still not known.

W. B. and Victoria were married in 1870 and lived for a while near her parents. In November of 1873, W. B. was elected Constable of Beat Two in Covington County and assumed that office in January of 1874.

By 1880 W. B. and Victoria had moved to Copiah County near Martinsville. The census that year listed five children: John W.-8, Samuel-6, Martha Jane-5, Alice Eraine-3, and Mary May-2 months.

The family was active in Spring Hill Baptist Church of Copiah County for many years. Victoria's name appears in the History of Spring Hill Church as being active in the local WMU. When the Union Baptist Association met for its 65th Annual Associational Meeting in 1885, W. B. Yates was listed as a delegate from Spring Hill Church.

In the fall of 1888 and 1889 when the Pearl Leaf Association (comprised of Covington, what is now Jeff Davis, eastern Lawrence, and northern Marion counties) met, W. B. was a participant on the program. We do not know what church he was representing. Elder W. B. Yates is listed as preaching the afternoon sermon on September 29, 1888. The next year, September of 1889, when the association met at Williamsburg in Covington County, Elder W. B. Yates gave the correspondence from Fair River Association, preached the Sunday afternoon message at the Methodist Church, and was appointed to the Foreign Missions Committee.

In 1889, at the age of 39, W. B. entered Mississippi College. For two years (1889-90 and 1890-91) he is listed as a ministerial student at Mississippi College.

Around 1901 or 1902 W. B. was ordained to the gospel ministry by Spring Hill church. He was the only member of Spring Hill Church to be ordained during the first one hundred years of the church's history. "Bro Yates was our long-winded prayer heister. He often prayed for ten minutes or longer, and increased the volume with each succeeding word." (History of Spring Hill Baptist Church 1860-1960).

In 1902, W. B. Yates was pastor of New Hope Baptist Church in Lawrence County.

In 1908, 1915, and 1916 he attended Copiah Baptist Association as a messenger from Spring Hill Church. In 1916 he was on the Associational Finance Committee.

In March of 1912, W. B. and Victoria's address was Route 4, Wesson. We have in his handwriting a notice offering a reward for finding and returning a lost yearling.

According to the 1910 census, Victoria had given birth to 14 children. The oldest, John W., died before his ninth birthday. Lider Bell died as a child also, before she was eight. Robert Rea died as a young man of 19 or 20. And Willie Rowan lived to be only 17 or 18, leaving a husband and young son. Apparently two unnamed children died as infants.

LICENSE REVOKED.

Insurance Commissioner W. Q. Cole has revoked the license of the State Life Insurance Company, of Indianapolis, Ind., to transact business in Mississippi on the ground the company is issuing what is known as "board policy," under which rebates are given to the assured.

Since the 1st of January Commissioner Cole has forced four fraternal assurances concerns to quit business in this State, being satisfied that they were fraudulent or not conducting business in accordance with the statutes.

A very careful scrutiny is now being given by the commissioner to the financial status of the fire insurance companies licensed in the State to ascertain if they have been impaired to the point of insolvency by the San Francisco disaster.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. P. Burroughs, an old and well-known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says: "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by McVea Young, Scranton, Miss.

GULFPORT BUYS REALTY HERE.

There was quite a stir in the real estate market in the Port of Pascagoula last Friday and Saturday when Mr. S. A. Tomlinson, cashier of the Bank of Commerce of Gulfport bought a forty acre tract on Market street from Mr. Charles R. Hall for $2000, and Mr. George W. Davis and brother, of Ocean Springs two lots on South Pascagoula street, corner of Washington street, for $1200 from Messrs. L. E. Cox and A. A. Farragut. These transfers were effected through Rev. L. E. Hall. This is an evidence of the commercial development of our future deep water city.

DEATH OF CHESTER O. YATES.

Last Friday morning at 9:20 o'clock Mr. Chester O. Yates, a well known wheelwright of Moss Point, dropped dead in front of Mr. C. H. Alley's ship chandlery store from heart failure, while on his way to the Palace Pharmacy to consult Dr. W. R. Kell, under whose care he was. His body was prepared for burial at the boarding house of Mrs. Kate Torjusen, from whence it was taken to Slidell, La., for burial, accompanied by Mr. M. A. Dees, Jr. Deceased was born in Handsboro about forty-eight years ago. He is survived by five children, namely, David, Chester, Willie and Emma Yates, of Slidell, and a married daughter living in Houston, Texas. He was a good and useful citizen.

Dear Mary and Loretta,

Chester Yates filed for divorce 10 January 1900. Adeline left him and moved in with John Hannan/Hannon. The children are listed in the court papers as David A., 18, Sarah A., 16, Chester E., 14, Leo L., 12, Emma, 8, and Willie, 5. They lived with Chester Yates. Adeline is listed as Orealie L. on the chancery court index (most likely a result of the writing being difficult to read). We asked Betty Rodgers, archivist at the Jackson County Archives to check the paperwork for us. You may write to them at Jackson County Department of Archives, P. O. Box 998, Pascagoula, MS 39568-0998 if you would like a copy of the paperwork. It is listed as case #890.

We have not been able to find an obituary for Adeline, since we do not know what last name she may have died with. She may have been a Davis, a Mrs. Adeline Davis is mentioned as a surviving sister in Leo Livaudais' obituary in 1955.

Charles Phillip Enoul De Livaudais and Pauline Adeline Livaudais are buried in unmarked graves in Griffin Cemetery in Moss Point.

We found a few entries for Livaudais and Yates in the Diocese of Biloxi, MS Catholic Church Records books that we have here in the library. They are abstracts of the actual records. If you would like a copy of them, we would be happy to mail them to you. We will need your mailing address in order to do so.

We hope that this information will be helpful and that you will let us know if we may be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,
Sherry Owens

Hi Mary,

My Marie Pauline Adeline Livaudais was the wife of Charles Phillip Enoul Dugue Livaudais born ca 1826 and died 17 Sep 1873. Adeline is supposed to be buried in Griffin Cemetery, Lot 117, Moss Point, Ms. I have never been there to check that out yet. They had 8 children. Their last child Auralie Lillian (Sometimes called Adeline" or Amelia) Livaudais is one that I am very interested in. She married my great grandfather Chester Oleander Yates on 23 DEC 1880. I have Auralie's birthdate as 9 Jul 1860 but no death date.

I did find a note where there was a court file with Chester Yates vs. Auralie, so I am wondering if they divorced? Seems pretty odd for that day and time but who knows. All I have is a page with the No. 890 that Bill Filed and summons 2/19/1900.

Anyway, If you find something on Auralie, I would love that also.

Thanks again for your time.

Dear Loretta,

The obit for Leo Livaudais doesn't say where Mrs. Adeline Davis was living at the time of Leo's death in 1955. I will send a copy of the obit along, also. We haven't been able to find an obit for Adeline as yet, under Yates or Davis. She may have had another marriage after the Davis, so it's hard to search for an obit without a last name. We do have obituary indexes, but we really can't call them complete, because there are just so many obituaries, we could have missed some. We will keep an eye out for one for Adeline, though, and let you know if we come up with anything. She may even have died elsewhere. The obit for Chester Yates seems to indicate that four of his children lived in Slidell, LA and one married daughter lived in Texas. We will send Chester's obit along, also, in case you don't have a copy.

I will just enclose a little note about the copy cost, if that's okay, in with the copies when I send them. The library charges fifteen cents per page for copies, so it really shouldn't amount to too much.

We are glad to have been of service and hope that this information will be helpful.

Sincerely,
Sherry Owens

Yes, I would very much like copies of the Livaudais and Yates in the Diocese of Biloxi, Ms. Catholic Church. Just let me know how much $$ to send you for mailing and copies.
My address is

Also, the Adeline Davis that is mentioned in Leo Livaudais obit may be my Adeline. Does it say where she is living at that time. Or an obit list after 1955 for her?
Thanks again.
I really appreciate it.

School study approved

The Pascagoula School Board Monday night approved recommendations by the administration for the 10-year evaluation of secondary schools in the district but delayed a decision on the same study for elementary schools.

The study is a requirement of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to maintain accreditation. Pascagoula High School has been accredited since 1960 and junior highs and elementary schools have been accredited since 1971.

Dr. Hugh Dickens, vice president of William Cary College, will act as consultant for the study and Dr. Clyde N. Ginn, assistant to the president, University of Southern Mississippi, will be chairman of the Visiting Committee.

Dr. George Ayers, assistant superintendent of Pascagoula Schools, said the study will begin with a self-study this month in which personnel of the school district will study the schools and list their strong points and weaknesses.

The results of the self-study will be published in the spring of 1991.
